by Dewan Purnaiah in favor of Settis, Vartakas and traders of Belur, Hagalvadi, Nonamiakere and other places. It is said that as a result of an increase in the Tax on articles sold at Attiguppe Petah, the trade was going down and that a promise was held out to the merchants that the usual Tax would be levied as before and some ~~for~~ Concessions allowed on sundry articles etc. brought for sale. In the concluding part, there is a direction that the usual fee should be paid by the traders to Baleswara Swami.

Nirupa of Vishu Samarathna (1821) by His late Highness Krishnaraj Wadiyar Bahadur directing that the Tax on the articles sold should be collected through one Linga Setti, the usual fee being paid to the Baleswara Swami and Matha at the place.
